

Data Matters

The latest insight, analysis, and company happenings

Webinar

Free, CLE-eligible webinar May 24

Employee Departures, Digital Forensics and Minimizing IP Exposure

Join us for this 60-minute program as our expert panel takes a deep dive into the role digital forensics can play in quickly examining large volumes of data – on a budget – to protect IP as record numbers of employees depart organizations.

Register Now

#Litigation&Investigations

Article

Tomorrow's Lawyers Will Need Tomorrow's "Discoverers" To Accomplish Their Goals

Just as future practitioners will need very different skills than today's practitioners, so will tomorrow's eDiscovery experts. In this piece, Derek Duarte, UnitedLex SVP of Litigation, takes a look at forces shaping change and roles for discovery professionals.

Read more

#IntellectualProperty

Case study

Patent Landscaping that Goes Beyond to Uncover Opportunities

CoorsTek, a leading global manufacturer of technical ceramics, wanted to better understand its patent portfolio strengths and weaknesses across more than 25 competitors. To meet the request, the UnitedLex team leveraged Vantage for IP.

Read more

#Enterprise

White paper

Forging New Paths at the Foothills of Legal Modernization

Are human adaptation and technology emerging as the cornerstones of a new legal industry? When Richard Susskind and Mark A. Cohen recently discussed a new legal landscape, a common theme emerged: stagnation is no longer an option. Our paper summarizes their insightful views.

Download now

#ULXPeople&Culture

Prepping and planning for H2 2023!

The UnitedLex IP Team gathered in our Kansas City office for three days of strategic planning and collaboration in preparation for the second half of 2023. A highlight of the trip was a reception hosted by our partners at Polsinelli law firm where we enjoyed lively conversation and expansive views of Downtown Kansas City.

Thank you for reading this month's Data Matters newsletter. We hope you found it valuable! Please share it with your colleagues and professional network, and visit our website for more resources and information. We look forward to connecting with you again next month. Comments or feedback? Contact us.