

Data Matters

The latest insight, analysis, and company happenings

CLE-eligible Webinar

Privilege Logging in the Age of GenAI

Mitigating Burdens and Risks

Join drafting team leaders and members of The Sedona Conference Working Group on Privilege Logging including Travis Bustamante, Adam Gajadharsingh, and Meghan A. Podolny as they discuss the latest tools and strategies to mitigate the burdens and competing interests often associated with privilege logs.

You'll get sound, practical guidance on the benefits and risks of applying AI to assist in the generation of narrative descriptions, understand considerations in light of ABA Formal Opinion 512 on Generative AI tools and more.

Register Now

#Litigation&Investigations

Article

The Latest Ruling on the FTC's Noncompete Ban, Employee IP Theft Statistics & Digital Forensics

"Unreasonably overbroad without a reasonable explanation," that's how U.S. District Judge Ada Brown in Texas described the FTC's pending rule essentially banning noncompete agreements. Understand impacts of her August 20 decision, what it means to the proposed noncompete ban and more.

Read Now

#IntellectualProperty

Report

The Untethered Competition of Wireless Technology

How can standard essential patents (SEPs) impact an industry's competitive landscape? Our newest report looks into SEP lapse strategies of major telecom companies, how they leverage SEPs to maximize portfolio value, and what the different approaches can teach us about IP management in any industry.

Download the Report

#LegalOperations

Report

Is Your Data AI-Ready?

When data is not AI-ready, outcomes can be disastrous.

Download now

#ULXPeople&Culture

Celebrating India Independence Day

UnitedLex colleagues at our Gurguram and Bangalore Offices celebrated India Independence Day with a beautiful blend of cultural activities, showcasing cultural dances, traditions and more. The theme for this year's Independence Day, 'Viksit Bharat,' reflects the government's vision of transforming India into a developed nation by 2047.

Thank you for reading this month's Data Matters newsletter. We hope you found it valuable! Please share it with your colleagues and professional network, and visit our website for more resources and information. We look forward to connecting with you again next month. Comments or feedback? Contact us.