

Data Matters

The latest insight, analysis, and company happenings

Report

2024 Litigation Survey

Insights from hundreds of AmLaw 200 and Fortune 1000 litigation leaders

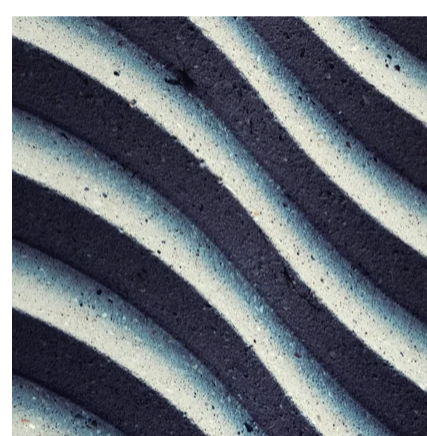

Your peers have spoken. In our recent survey, 58% of in-house respondents and 55% of law firm respondents indicated their modernization efforts are focused on a strategic overhaul of sourcing approaches.

Access the complete analysis of responses from over 200 leading in-house and law firm litigators. The findings reveal how data and AI initiatives, performance metrics, operational governance and more are contributing to a dramatic shift in how (and by whom) litigation work is getting done.

Download Now

#Litigation&Investigations

Article

A Sea Change for Trade Secret Protection? The Noncompete Ban in the Crosshairs

Recent decisions in Texas and Pennsylvania underscore the complexity of the FTC's proposed noncompete ban. Explore implications of the potential ban on commerce and law. You'll also access a timely list of 10 steps you can take now to protect your trade secrets.

Read Now

#IntellectualProperty

Case Study

Win-Win IP Prosecution

How can you achieve budget predictability and maintain service quality for IP prosecution work, all while maintaining profitability? This case study shows how Polsinelli partnered with us to help clients accelerate and expand their patent programs while growing practice profitability by 20%.

Read the Case Study

#LegalOperations

Article

How Legal Invoice Review Can Save Time and Money

Learn how focusing on the benefits that flow from good billing practices — including quality data — can find cost savings for reinvestment into the business. Legal invoice review can save money, while addressing some the biggest budgetary and spend reporting challenges.

Download now

#ULXPeople&Culture

UnitedLex Charity Miles Challenge

UnitedLex Employees Support Earthjustice with Charity Miles Challenge

UnitedLex's Upward! Foundation, in partnership with Charity Miles, raised funds for Earthjustice, an organization dedicated to wielding the power of law to protect our planet and the environment. Across the globe, every mile our team recorded in Charity Miles by walking, running, biking or hiking, raised funds for Earthjustice as part of the Foundation's commitment to environmental sustainability.

Thank you for reading this month's Data Matters newsletter. We hope you found it valuable! Please share it with your colleagues and professional network, and visit our website for more resources and information. We look forward to connecting with you again next month. Comments or feedback? Contact us.